سُبْحَانَ الَّذِي أَسْرَى بِعَبْدِهِ، لَيْلًا مِّنَ الْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ
إِلَى الْمَسْجِدِ الْأَقْصَا الَّذِي بَنَيْنَا حَوْلَهُ، وَلِئُرِيَهُمْ مِنْ آيَاتِنَا إِنَّهُ
هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْبَصِيرُ

سورة الإسراء، الآية ١

“Glory to (Allah) Who did take His servant for a Journey by night from the Sacred Mosque to the farthest Mosque, whose precincts We did bless, in order that we show him some of Our Signs: surely (Allah) is the Hearing, the Seeing.”

(Surat al-Israa: 1)

PREFACE

Dr. Sharif Amin Abu Shammalah
CEO, Al-Quds Foundation Malaysia

Undoubtedly, the city of Al-Quds holds a central position amongst Muslims and Christians; it is the heart of the Holy Land and it stems its sanctity from Masjid al-Aqsa -the third holiest site in Islam- the milestone of the Isra' and Mi'raj journey, as it's highly sacred amongst Christians due to several holy shrines such as the Church of the Holy Sepulchre.

However, the city has been witnessing over the last years a fierce offensive of Judaization, especially after the Zionist occupation of east Jerusalem in 1967; a relentless effort to blur its cultural identity and eliminate the Palestinian presence; Islamic and Christian, not to mention, the occupation's aspiration and calls to build the "temple" synagogue upon the rubbles of Masjid Al-Aqsa, which constitutes a flagrant violation of the international law.

Therefore, and in order to preserve the rights of Muslims as well as other peoples in al-Quds and al-Aqsa, and to maintain the Malaysians' presence in al-Quds, Al-Quds Foundation Malaysia (QFM) was launched by popular initiative and official support as an NGO that was officially registered in 2012, and ever since has been working tirelessly to unite the hearts and hands of the Malaysian people to establish a new era of joint actions towards the issue of al-Quds and Palestine.

During the march of QFM, it sought to achieve its goals and objectives of promoting the cause of al-Quds amongst the Malaysian people and to mobilize efforts and capacities to support and consolidate with the steadfastness of the people of al-Quds through a variety of programs and means.
